Joseph Duffy

I rode a bolt of lightning
That pierced the heavens high!
I rode a bolt of lightning
And never shall know why--

IN MEMORIAM

SORROW
knocked at the door
Faith answered, and found no one there

Man must fight for freedom, sure that's what most other people would say. Why wait until it's time to die
before you learn what you were born to do? Come on now it's freedom calling, but there's only one freedom for you.

OUR COACHES

The Crimson had a tough 1974 football season as they could not get their offense moving, despite the hard work put out by the team. Their record showed just how hard the season really was, 1-9. They suffered a tough opening game as they lost to B. C. High in the last two minutes by a score of 2-0.

They came back well in the second game as they were victorious over Haverhill by a score of 14-12 in an exciting, overtime game.

It was downhill from then on. They lost to Somerville 22-14, North Quincy 20-16, Peabody 40-6, Arlington 28-8, Revere 21-6, Medford 15-12, Malden 26-6, and Chelesa 28-20.

The team put out a lot of effort and tried no matter how badly they were losing. They played catch-up football for the better part of the season. When they got a lead, tough breaks just seemed to go their way.

Captain Dan Ross was the recipient of the Paul Manganaro Trophy for the best lineman in the game against Medford. He also received the Jeffrey Jeweler's Award for the most outstanding player all season and made the first line of the All-Scholastic Football team.

E. H. S. SOCCER

In its second year of existence the Everett High Soccer Team competed in the Greater Boston League against well-established teams with a team experience of up to ten years. Our team competed at its best against these teams, but much was missing in teamplay to be successful.

Coach Tony D'Ambrosio, working with veterans Adrian Carullo, Tony Pescara, and rookie Mike LaRaia, was able to put together a fair team to give tough competition to our opponents.

In spite of inadequate practice facilities, playing most games away, and inexperience, some individual sportsmanship was displayed. The Greater Boston League selected four all-star players from our teams:

First Teams: Adrian Carullo
Tony Pescara

Second Team: Mike LaRaia

Honorable Mention: Richard Barry

CROSS-COUNTRY

This year the Everett High Cross-Country Team had a good season. Their final record was 5 wins and 6 losses.

For the first time this year's team became city champs defeating Pope John and Vocational High Schools. And another first was their participation in the MASS STATE CROSS-COUNTRY CHAMPIONSHIP where they were placed high in their division.

Both the runners and Coach Carmody feel we had a fairly successful season.

HOCKEY

For Larry Tuck, Norm Jordan, and Tom Gibson, the coaches of the Crimson Hockey Team, and for the Co-captains, Rick Marquardo and Danny Ross, it was a frustrating season. The Crimson Tide played much better than their record showed. Coach Tuck's skaters really gave the big clubs competition with their hustle and determination.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

VARSITY

Despite their record of 4-11 Girls' Basketball has had a good season. The team put in a good deal of effort and worked diligently to gain a comeback when the score was against it.

The wins were:

Chelsea 32-19

Peabody 45-42

Chelsea 72-17

Arlington 35-34 (who was denied the chance to advance to the Tech)

The team had two high scorers: Stacie Kerrigan--140 and Cookie Marsinelli--112.

During regular season play the Crimson Tide averaged 61 points per game to their opponents 58. Everett shot 45 percent from the floor and 58 percent from the free-throw line.

Co-Captain Hank Vetrano led the Crimson in total points scored, steals, rebound, and assists. Vetrano averaged 18 points per game and Mike Thistle had 14 per game. Thistle shot 49 percent from the floor while Paul Faison shot 71 percent from the free-throw line.

With their 12-8 record the Crimson Tide earned their place in the TECH TOURNEY. Their stay in the TECH was a short one as they were nipped by Woburn High by the close score of 60-58.

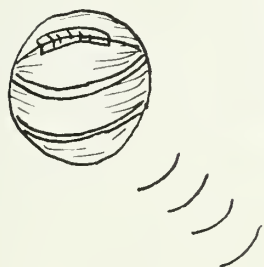

Managers for the 1974-75 squad include Neil Medugno, Debbie Traill, Charlie Cordwell and Janet Hurley.

CLASS HISTORY

In 1970 at Parlin Junior High School the Class of 1975 was led on the road to scholarship, leadership, and wisdom. During our freshman year we participated in many noteworthy assemblies. How could we ever forget Mr. Roccia's performance of "The Night of January 16th." Toward the middle of the year our beloved submaster, Mr. Fortunato moved to another school system and Submaster Mangerian took the reigns and soon our freedoms diminished. Who will ever forget those long minutes at the end of the day waiting for the intercom to tell when your homeroom was to be dismissed? When could we take that giant step across the street to EHS?

Then came the time for the distribution of Parlin "P's" and special awards. The number of recipients speaks for itself.

Too soon that big day in September came when we optimistically entered the wilderness of EHS. Our dreams were now reality and our fears and problems were being worked out as we adjusted to our new routines. Soon we discovered the mythical elevator, but now we possessed new freedom, no more filing singly in silence and best of all free recess with a co-ed cafeteria and no bar between us.

We chose Eddie Mattuchio as our leader with Beverly Cutone as our Vice-President, Janet Biggi, Secretary and Angela Matarazzo, Treasurer. On the Student Council we were represented by Chris Bocchino, Janet Churchill, and William Lassiter.

Now as we prepared to become Juniors we were delighted that some attractive electives had been added to our curriculum. Now for our last hurdle--finals. As in the past the Class of '75 made it through with flying colors.

In September 1973 it was our turn to watch those funny little sophomores trying to find their way around EHS. They were going through what we had just completed.

We chose the following class officers: Dan Ross, President, Jimmy Contardo, Vice-President, Rose Cotugno, Secretary and Ray Smith, Treasurer. On the Student Council we were represented by Chris Bocchino, Janet Churchill, Beverly Cutone, and Candy Erickson.

The football season came along and although we were not as successful as we had hoped, we did develop some blossoming talent.

In basketball, win after win, brought us just within the grasp of the Tech Tourney. In the game that kept us out of the tourney at Belmont, many people on the opposing team were baptized in the Lake at Belmont--that sure made us feel better. As we returned from that disappointing crucial game all we could do was renew our hopes for next year.

Our hockey team sparked, but before we realized even this season had come and gone.

Early in the spring the Junior Prom time arrived. The committee worked diligently to make the date one to be remembered. If the decorations sagged and eyes started to close toward the end of the evening not a soul noticed for it was one great evening to remember.

Colette DeFeo was chosen as our Queen and Rocco Alberti as our King, but we all knew that at that Prom every girl was a Queen and every boy a King.

Once again summer came and went with most of us not even realizing that this would probably be our last summer of freedom, and sad to say it was for James Jankowski who drowned in a tragic accident.

We were older now, more mature, more sophisticated, and perhaps more serious, but still a happy crew as we manned the boat for its final row on the Everett High School River. The incoming sophomores did not phase us at all this year. We saw in them youth and immaturity. They seemed to small and helpless, could this have really been us two years ago?

For the second year in succession we chose Dan Ross as President and Ray Smith as Treasurer. John Ragucci, Vice President and Karen Festa, Secretary were class officers for the first time. The Student Council members were Beverly Cutone, Chris Bocchino, Candy Erickson, Eileen Sheehan and Janet Churchill.

At our first counci dance Patty Henley was chosen our Yearbook Queen.

Football season came along once again and although our crimson machine stalled, Dan Ross became a brilliant college prospect.

Our cheerleaders were very promising led by our tri-captains, Candy, Lois, and Diane.

Our girls field hockey team played in their first league games which they thoroughly enjoyed as participants in a girls' sports program.

The basketball team started with a "pro" squad and rambled to a winning season. Our Soccer, Indoor and Outdoor track, Hockey, Baseball, teams all did well.

In December, the senior class was saddened by the loss of a beloved classmate, Joe Duffy, in a tragic car accident.

The last day before our Christmas vacation found half the student body devouring Chinese food in the Caf.

During our vacation our senior Christmas party was held. We all ate, talked, and bumped into the night. Some of us visited the bar, "being of legal age" and spirits ran high. The night ended and we all left to enjoy the upcoming new year.

In January we settled down to our studies, took college boards, and managed to survive. There was an overwhelming feeling of restlessness, some worried about getting into college, others about jobs, and there were still a few who had no idea what they were going to do.

The last few months flew past, and here we stand grown up and ready to take our places in the world. Then came our big event, the Senior Prom. It was an evening of dining and dancing at Hill View Country Club in North Reading.

Spring vacation had come and gone. And now it was no longer a dream, our school years were coming to an end. We laughed and joked and had our last day of fun in school at Class Day Exercises.

Then the day that everyone had been waiting for, Graduation Day. We exchanged fleeting glances and wondered where the years had gone. Here we stood in our gowns saying our last good-byes and feeling strangely melancholy.

We had learned together, played together, cried together, and laughed together, but now our school years were over. Each of us was to travel his separate road. Some to meet again, others to drift away, but we will always have our class spirit and most of all our memories.

Teacher's Prayer

I want to teach my students how — To live this life on earth —
To face its struggles and its strife — And to improve their worth —
— Not just the lesson in a book — Or how the rivers flow —
But how to choose the proper path — Wherever they may go —
To understand eternal truth — And know the right from wrong —
— And gather all the beauty of — A flower and a song —
For if I help the world to grow — In wisdom and in grace —
Then I shall feel that I have won — And I have filled my place —
And so I ask your guidance, God — That I may do my part —
For character and confidence — And happiness of heart. —

"NO EXCUSES! I want the pages into the Company ON TIME!"

Mr. McCauley

I'll guarantee that Miss Whelan and I will see to it that you meet all your deadlines

Mr. Bleiler

Only 15 minutes to do the Cover?

Oh Miss Whelan we like it. Can't we use it?

Oh! Oh! This is a Dynamite Idea!!

To Use your favorite expression -- Gross. How will you explain this nonsense to your children and Grandchildren

Now that I know what I'm doing, I love it.

Flighty Debby Decaro

Miss Whelan

What do you want me to do next?
